

You have been given the job to take the job advertisements to the local newspaper. All the information is on separate pieces of paper which you drop. You try to match the job up with the description. Can you get it right before the foreman comes.

6 Trapper

5 Stoneman

4 Coupler

3 Rolleyman

2 Hewer

1 Putter

A A boy who couples or connects, by means of the coupling chains, the tubs of coal in order to form a set or train

B boys of the youngest class, employed to open and shut the doors, which keep the ventilation in the workings regular

C boys employed to drive the horses, that draw the sledges, rollies and wagons, from the crane to the shaft

D those who fill the corves (strong osier baskets in which the coals are conveyed) and lead them from the hewers, on four-wheeled carriages called Trams, to the crane or shaft

E Person who makes excavation in "stone" i.e. hard strata other than coal

F persons that hew or cut the coal from the coal face